This way, you can gradually develop your skills to notice the flow of energy and information.

Installation instructions

Please listen to the accompanying recording to install the holographic program Liquid Love for you. You only need to install the program once.

Activation

Activation Phrase: Apply Template Liquid Love (to attract romance, to attract new love, to attract a new romantic relationship, to make your marriage more loving, etc.)

You can execute the program anytime by saying “Apply Template Liquid Love.” The activation command brings in the vibration and the information matrix for Liquid Love template described in this program. If you meditate, you can also keep repeating the activation phrase with your goal. The more you consciously apply the program, the stronger it gets for you and you get more used to interacting with the matrix Liquid Love template creates.

When you activate the program, it encloses your personal field with the information and light matrix it holds and remains active until the process is complete. You can run the program as often as you would like. Each time, the program matrix will stay active and work in the background even when you are not paying attention.

Description of Tasks

- 1) The Liquid Love template first scans your personal energy matrix to retrieve the patterns of your current state of love and relationships.
- 2) Liquid Love has an integrated Holographic Vision Board where you can also enter your goals.
- 3) Liquid Love then analyzes your personal matrix in relationship with your goals.

- 4) It then transforms current patterns and generates a solution matrix that is in most harmony with your goals and helps you to integrate that energy with your personal field. It works with speed, fun and fluidity.
- 5) The solution matrix usually comes down as a pulsating rose light through your energy field and starts to send out pulses to attract the new options for you.
- 6) All changes happen in the most harmonious way for an individual and with each step, the body holds more light and the individual moves toward a higher consciousness.
- 7) The program and instructions are sealed in sacred geometry with cosmic frequencies for the highest level of purity.

How to Use the Program

- 1) Create a sacred space of neutrality and non-judgment by activating the Harmonic Shield around you if you have not done so already. You can launch it by using the command "Activate the Harmonic Shield." A free version of this Harmonic Shield can be downloaded by subscribing to Life Harmonized email newsletters.
- 2) Focus on your energy field (your physical body and four feet around you) and flush your personal energy field with sun light for a few minutes by visualizing or calling the sunlight to flow through you. You can do this by connecting with the sun (day or night) and visualizing the sun light going through you and cleansing your entire personal field. This is a very simple but an extremely powerful exercise to do each day for a few minutes.
- 3) Launch the program by saying "Apply Template Liquid Love"
- 4) Now the Liquid Love template also opens up the Holographic Vision Board. Place your goals for using the Liquid Love template on the Holographic Vision Board. You can directly project your goals or drag and drop your written goals onto the Holographic Vision Board or just think about your goals.
- 5) Just sit quietly for a few minutes while the template transforms patterns for you. The Holographic Vision Board automatically disconnects you from morphic fields of lower vibration of love and connects you to morphic fields of higher vibration of love.
- 6) The process is now complete. Notice what starts to change for you and around you. Allow new options to show up for you. Notice who are some of the people you run into, who shows up in your life, who do you meet...
- 7) It is important not to limit the outcome by being very specific. For example, I know a person who wanted to fall in love and marry a lady with red hair. He did a lot of meditation and it took him some time to find her but he did meet, fall in love and marry his love who had red hair. Guess what – a few weeks later, she asked her husband to purchase a medium red hair color for her as her hair was turning blonde again! He was first very upset but then they laughed a lot about how manifestation worked for him. They are very happy together. True story. If you limit your options, the process will be delayed. Instead, go with the flow and see what is in most alignment with you. Unless you are in alignment with your goals, you cannot allow it to show up for you. Start to generate the feelings of your goals – what type of love or romance are you looking for? This vibration is more important than anything else. So when you ask for anything, always remember to have an intention – let this or something better happen for me.

- 8) Once you get used to noticing how the programs work with your personal field, you can run it anytime, even when you are really busy. The program will work in the background whenever you activate it.
- 9) The initial meditation is only for you to notice how the energy flows through you and how you interact with holographic programs. This practice helps to develop skills to understand and notice different types of energy flow. Meditation is not necessary for any of the holographic tools or programs unless specified.

Please continue to activate the program as often as you would like and test it in different ways – such as to improve relationship with your family members or friends, to create a spark with someone that you love, or to randomly meet someone new and anything else that you can think about. The more you play with the program to generate new options, the faster it will start to work for you. Find out how the program works best for you. Always run Liquid Love from a state of joy to manifest fast.

Thank you for helping us to raise our collective consciousness.
