You Wealth Revolution Shift 2012

Interview with Meg Benedicte

Date: June 13, 2012

Topic: Discover How to Use the Quantum Vortex to Unlock Your Supernatural Powers!

Darius: Hello and welcome, everyone. This is Darius Barazandeh. You're tuning into the You Wealth Revolution Shift 2012. A lot of people have been asking me, "Well, Darius, you've been at this You Wealth Revolution since like February of this year and how do you stay so excited? How do you stay so energized? How do you just deal with the energy and the possibility that this event musters and continue every day to extent?"

I've got to be honest – some days there are days that I am still absolutely excited, but there are days that the energy flows slower. Then there are days like today where it just flows like in these huge downpours and massive waves like tsunamis that come in. When I feel a tremendous energy shift coming because of the guest or because of something special that I know is going to happen, that's when my energy is at its peak and everybody that works with me knows that.

Today has been one of those days and the reason is because our guest today, Meg Benedicte, is going to be teaching us some incredible things – areas that I've studied that I'm absolutely fascinated with and completely in tune with energetically. I feel it in my body. I want everybody here to just sort of make note of where your body is because it is going to start to charge, resonate, uplift and really vibrate to an incredible level based on what we are going to be doing here, so get ready.

The first step to get ready is to please let people know about what we're doing. There are people all over the world right now who are tuning into the old energy model, to the old grid and our mission today, right now, is to blast that grid open and change the future of this planet. All of you, no matter what you have in your life, you have a mission. You have a key, an important role in that and that is to spread this message and spread your message.

You can do that by being a reporter, a reporter on the Facebook sharing blog at www.youwealthrevolution.com/now. Let people know what's going on. Let your friends and family on Facebook know what Meg is teaching. Summarize today's lesson, take notes as your tuning in because we are going to be doing some activations. We're going to be doing some incredible things with Meg. We're going to learn how to use quantum physics in the zero point field, sacred geometry and the art of alchemy, even the spiral dynamic of Taurus as a tool for transformation at the molecular level.

Guys, I am blown away with excitement. We're going to understand how to eliminate disease by reconnecting the human self with the divine self in the physical bio-energetic field. We're going to use vortex meditation to unlock gravity and activate the chakra centers and ignite your juice, your kundalini life force energy.

We are going to create inner stillness, peace and balance with zero point energy harmonics of sacred pi or phi energy. We're going to activate the pineal gland and the neuro-network of the psychic intuitive communication with the higher self. We're going to stretch your possibilities.

Now Meg Benedicte is the owner of Soulful Services, a holistic based business in LA, California and through extensive energetic research and quantum healing, Meg has discovered the magnitude of change that is possible when we all tap into the zero point energy of a counter clockwise spinning vortex.

You're going to see me get a little tongue tied on this call because as much as I've studied I haven't even gone into the depth of what Meg has done. I'll be thinking I know what she's saying and then something else will come up and it's like, whoa, I never thought of that.

Here we go – by transferring metatron's sacred geometric mass into a Taurus vortex to personal healing, she can access unlimited free energy to eradicate disease, polarity and the decomposition of time. With this transformational technique – I’m just literally grinning here because this is just so incredible – Meg has helped clients to quickly shift consciousness, unlock karma, remove energetic patterns, so they can clear out out of date systems of 3D duality that limit they’re human experience.

By using geometric relationships to wave interaction, she has developed powerful unified field vortex meditations that are coded to bend space, access fifth dimensional energy and wisdom and open the crown chakra portal to the higher self.

She has been doing this for the last 15 years and she’s been sharing this with global audiences all over and you are now part of that group. She believes that 2012 is the pivotal year and she is going to be performing large global meditations to unravel the truth and connect us to the great central sun. I am very excited, Meg, welcome to the You Wealth Revolution Shift 2012.

Meg: Hi Darius. I am so excited to be here with you and your listeners and I’m really, really excited to share what I discovered almost 20 years ago – this secret, hidden secret, here of how to activate our supernatural powers. Imagine what our lives would be like if our supernatural powers were all up and running and impacting our lives. That’s what we’re going to work on here today, so I’m just thrilled to be here.

Darius: It is very exciting for me because I’ve studied some of this, but you take it to a whole other level and I guess maybe the first place to begin is what is happening as we are now in 2012 and moving into this literal climax of transformation? What is going on in our world?

Meg: This year is pivotal because we have an incredible opportunity to break free of this oppressive regime, this oppressive reality, that’s been in duality and because of the energy that is streaming onto our planet. It's in a higher frequency. It's coming from our alignment with the galactic center and these increasing solar flares. This alignment is through this year.

Many of you have maybe heard about the Mayan calendar and so during this year, all the way to December 21st, our solar system is lined up right with the galactical equator and we're receiving this huge influx of photon light and this is the carrier of higher consciousness. So it's just streaming into our geomagnetic field and into our bodies, into our DNA and it's transforming us literally from the inside out. We can use this.

We have six months left, so we can use this energy that is creating actually our planet to spin faster altering the compression of gravity on the planet. When we can step into the quantum vortex during this amazing year, it allows us to open up our mind to this higher consciousness and to actually direct how our DNA is mutating and reforming.

It enables us to activate the panyono network in the right brain so we can receive intuition. It also allows us to ingest this crystalline light, this photon light, so we're bringing this literally into the molecular level. This is what the nebulum F2 unlocks from the limits of 3D time. It's just an incredible year.

Darius: Oh my gosh, I'm salivating. We have people piling in questions. It's already exploding here. I want to let everyone know – we are going to be doing some activations, so there's going to be an experiential part of this. If any of this gets too deep or you go, "I really don't understand," just wait because we are going to be actually experiencing just a little taste, but you're going to get experiential. I guess the first question is what is the quantum vortex and why is it such a powerful medium for us to tap into?

Meg: How this was introduced to me by my higher guides about 17 years ago was basically they said, "Okay, just draw a circle with the 12 points like the 12 astrology signs or 12 points on a clock.” Basically, what they were demonstrating to me was the sacred geometry of life and creation, which are metatron’s cubes. It’s the 12 points around one; draw that in a circle in your mind.

You can even draw it on a piece of paper if you need to and step into the center of it and start spinning the energy. Of course, I didn’t know what that meant, so I have had to – just like everyone else has to – learn this experientially as well. I didn’t know any of this.

This all came over the years as I witnessed what was happening and kind of experimented, but basically, what it is is it’s tapping into this natural counter clockwise rhythm of our galactic black hole and if you know anything about that galactic center, this is where stars are being created. It’s a zero point field, so that means it’s in zero gravity.

In that zero gravity you would think it would be dead space. We talk about dead matter, dead space. It’s not. It’s actually a very vibrant field of light. There’s always like little popping spasms of light in the zero point. This is the source of free energy.

If we can tap into that and we can stream that into our bodies, into our systems, you will never feel drained. You will never feel disconnected from the universe anymore. You will immediately begin to be fed. It’s like it’s our inner fuel. That’s one of the greatest benefits of using this quantum vortex.

Also, too, what it does is when you can get into a vacuum space that exists inside a vortex. It literally opens you up out of time, right? It opens you. It unlocks gravity and we can go into an environment where we can unlock the compression of gravity, which is compressing our particles to conform this matter, right, so we can unlock that compression.

Then we're opening up to the antimatter field and, of course, this is where all exists in our universe that's unmanifested. This is how we're able to tap into all that we desire and dream of creating, but we can't get to because the gravity is compressing us and locking us in.

It even affects us down to the molecular level. If we have any kind of discordant disease codes, a generational/multi-generational codes, right, we can unlock with the gravity and then we can get in and start to recode ourselves and reprogram ourselves. It's truly transformational when you get into this neutral zero point inside the spinning vortex.

Also, too, I've noticed in working with it over these many years, in a way it operates like a centrifuge in chemistry class. If you get inside this spin, what it's doing is it's integrating everything inside it and it smooths it all together. We have these four levels of our being – the physical, mental, emotional and spiritual.

Usually, they're not working together right. The mind is battling the heart and we can't even feel our spirit. When you get into this rotation of the vortex, it starts to integrate all the levels of our being into oneness, into a complete holistic system so it's operating as one.

Also, too, what I've found is when you get into this spin, the first problem that I noticed and why are we locked down, why are we only using like 10% of our brain. Why are we in this downward spiral of decay and degradation and devolution?

What I was shown by Spirit intuitively was it's because we're in a clockwise rotation. What physicists have been able to determine is even down at the subatomic level, we are oscillating. We are spinning and even our little particles in our molecules, they are spinning. Everything in our universe is spiraling. It's a spiraling universe. This is how we evolve. This is how we grow.

The problem is we've been in an environment on our planet of polarity and it's held us compressed in time and the downward spiral of time is clockwise, which makes sense. That's why our clocks are going in that direction. What they said was, "Okay, you need to get out of that you need to pull yourself out of that because that's only going to be taking you into disease and death."

First thing – immediately – that they had me do is get into the spin and start to spin up counter clockwise around the body. It kind of looks almost like a soup can spinning around the body, right. It takes everything inside it and starts to rotate the oscillation rate, the spin rate into counter clockwise and what this does is it starts to get you into this resurrection spiral, this ascending spiral of evolution and out of the downward spiral of devolution.

That is like the first thing we'll do in our activation. This is a big, big deal and if we can get into a counter clockwise, you no longer have to worry about death and disease. This is where we really start to move away from that reality and get out of the lock of polarity and start to move into singularity, which is the standing way of the pulse of creation that exists in the zero point in our galactic core. That's just some of the benefits.

We'll talk about more, but at least getting the vortex up and running and around your body will start to alter your energetic field immediately. It's quite powerful.

Darius: I can't wait and I'm kind of salivating here because this is so exciting. Miss Ross, from California just wrote in and she says, "Just even as Meg started talking I felt a surge of energy run through my body. This is awesome, Darius. Thank you for having her on." People already just feeling, I guess, because you are generating this and you are coming from this space. We are feeling it, like you're a catalyst for us.

Really quick because I want to get into that activation, in fact, I almost just want to be quiet and feel it all. There are people on this call that have been in the spiritual space and have been following things like the law of attraction or clearing work or removing blocks. I get the feeling like everybody's been doing it sort of like in this third dimensional gravitational clockwise reality and it's like so just not working. Why? Why would it not work if they care, if their intentions are pure, if they want it? What is keeping people stuck in some cases, Meg?

Meg: That's a great question. First of all, just so everybody knows that you're not at fault. We literally are living in a polarized operating system in this 3D duality. We have a north pole and a south pole, so we have a positive and a negative magnetic field pushing against itself to hold matter together. For every positive action, you make you get an equal negative reaction and we call it counterforce.

It's like every time you move forward, it pushes you back because it's trying to hold everything in that balance point between the opposing polarities. Once we realize this it's like, oh my God, I'll never get anywhere. This is constantly pushing me back when I'm trying to grow and evolve.

This is where I realized through intuition from my higher guides that we have to actually neutralize polarity to be able to evolve. We have to be able to get out of polarity that opposing negative force so that we can be able to get into this upward spiraling motion where you just continue to expand and expand and grow and manifest and it's just the most beautiful sensation.

To do that that's why the vortex helps because when you can get inside the spinning quantum vortex, what it's doing is it's neutralizing that opposing force of the North and South Pole. It starts to get you into a vacuum state. When we're in a vacuum state, this is a non-polarized state and so if you think about just a natural vortex, we see like a tornado. Inside the tornado is, like they call it the calm, right, in the center of the storm. It's a vacuum state. It's still. It's the zero point. It's stillness. Then spinning around it is just pure chaos and destruction.

What we do is we're, in a sense, putting ourselves in a similar rotation. We're getting inside the vortex spin just like a tornado. We're getting into that stillness – that calm in the center – but we're using sacred geometry and we're using the harmonics of phi to be able to create an order spin. It creates a field of coherence so we're no longer in chaotic destruction. We're actually monitoring and mastering and managing the spin and it's listening and responding to our consciousness.

By doing this for so many years, the vortex has actually integrated into my field and this would happen with anybody who's using it and it listens to my consciousness. So it's constantly responding and it's removing discordant energies. It's removing imbalances. It's protecting the outer boundary of my aura. That's what you're feeling. I'm always in it and it's always active and so when I tune in, wherever I tune in, I'm tuning into you, Darius, and all of your listeners. That's starting to then wrap the vortex energy around all of you. That's how we're going to work in a group.

This is where we have to get beyond polarity. That's where the law of attraction really isn't going to work that well. Yes, it works in updating what consciousness we run in our minds and in our hearts. Definitely that is very positive, but we're still dealing with that counterforce of the opposing magnetic poles and that's where we need to just eliminate all of that.

Darius: That what it sounds like where I know so many of us have had that experience where we're sort of like that counter magnetic force. We have some great results, but then because we're still in the reality that is this duality world, for every good we do then there's a sway back to the challenge or the trouble that we have.

Well, Meg, I am getting almost bombarded by people who are saying, "I want to experience, I want to experience it." With that explanation and with that understanding as to what may be missing for a lot of us, maybe let's do this first activation.

Meg: Okay, what we're going to do is switch gears here and get more into that quiet meditative state. Although, Darius, you started us off really beautifully, so we're just going to kind of ride on that wave here. What I do, first and foremost, before I ever open up the spiral around me is I get grounded because if you think about it, if you're sucked into a tornado and you're not grounded and rooted, that's not going to be so good.

The first thing we do is we get grounded. We have magnets on the bottom of our feet chakras. The first thing I do every morning is I get up and in my mind I visualize that I'm going to now lock the magnet on the bottom of my feet onto my grounding platform. This is underneath at the bottom of our aura and each and every one of us has one and it's usually about a foot into the crust of the earth at the earth chakra. Just if you can imagine and extend your feet into the earth a bit here, we want to get into that earth energy.

We get the bottom of our feet locked onto our platform and I always see it as like a gold disc in the earth and so that's where we're going to get onto. It's connected onto the new earth grids, the crystalline grids. I'm actually activating this template under your feet on your grounding platform.

This is the sacred geometry of this vortex template. I'm just going to tune into all of you. We're getting our feet onto our platform. We're going to start to get onto the sacred geometry template and this, of course, is the image of metatron's cube so this is the circle with the 12 points around one.

If you can imagine you're just getting onto the central circle and we're going to start to use our breath to open up the flow of chi into the heart, into the lungs. There we go. Now I feel everyone starting to lock on. It's almost like your feet are kissing the earth there just getting nice suction right onto your platform and onto the sacred geometry.

What this does is it activates the vortex mathematics and so first thing we're going to do is we're going to raise those 12 points as 12 pillars of light up and around the body all the way up. This is creating like a sacred temple around our body. Okay, there it goes. Then we start to activate the template under our feet to spin up and it's to angle from right to left in a counter clockwise rotation.

Let's get that going. There it goes. It's going to start to open it up and expand the spin so it's a vortex of crystalline white light, source light. It starts to open up around the body and what we're going to do is get into this upward spiral. I just start to feel into it or intuit into it and we're going to move up through the 12 chakras and so we have seven chakras in the body, five about the crown and they all connect to the 12 dimensions of our universe.

We're going to encompass the entire unified field and so now let's just go ahead and get into the spin. I'll take you in with me and we're going to feel...it's almost like going up an elevator in a skyscraper. We're just going to start to move up through the seven chakras in the body and then up into the five spiritual chakras above the crown and we're going all the way up to our higher self up to the 12th chakra.

This is the top of our core pillar and it's also the portal into the God head. We're going to start to move across, there's a door way, a portal here at the higher self. Our higher self is like our firewall, like our gatekeeper and we're going to move through and into the God head, into that sea of golden light. We step through and we begin to dissolve our density and start to become more fluid and flexible.

What's happening is we're beginning to open up to the anti-matter field and just keep visualizing you're going to immerse yourself into this golden pool of God light. Good and when we do this we're merging in and we're unlocking from the limits of 3D time and we're merging in and blending into all time, all dimensions of our universe of the quantum field.

Good, there we go. We're starting to blend in. It's in here that we start to connect to our soul presence. This is our own unique sole frequency. Each and every one of us has our own energetic signature, our own frequency, our own vibration. So we're connecting in, so it matches to us however that shows up to you. You may get a feeling or you may get a sense of grace or you might get an image of light, but whatever you do let's hold the intention now that we connect to our divine soul presence in the God head.

Beautiful and now we're going to start to bring that energy back with us down through the higher self, through the portal and we're going to bring it down into our body. I always see it like liquid golden light coded to our soul frequency. It's like a river, like a stream of our soul energy, our soul light coming down the pillar, down through the crown, down into our heart center.

Imagine your heart center as if it's like an empty container. We're just going to start to fill our heart with our soul light, our soul love, our soul presence inside and it's very healing and nurturing and regenerating. Good, more coming down in.

What we're doing is we're creating a bond between our higher self and our human self at the heart center because we've lost our connection to spirit and by living in duality, we're reconnecting and we're merging the two beings, the light being and the physical being as one in the heart. There you go. Let's just breathe this in for a moment and what we want to do is just fill up like an empty well inside. We're just going to fill up with our divine soul light, soul presence and then we're going to start to work with our vortex.

To do this, I always run a figure eight left and right here at the center of gravity. This is right above the navel in like the upper belly. I run a figure eight left and right there, our feminine energy in on our left, our masculine energy is on the right. So we're starting to balance them. Then we're also going to run a figure eight of light left and right hemisphere of the brain. Good, there we go. Alright, we're starting to balance because what we want to do is create this zero point inside our vortex.

Then finally I'm going to tap into our galactic vortex and I'm going to start to stream in the zero point harmonic tones that stream out of our galactic center. I'm going to start to bring them in and this is in the frequency of phi. This is the sacred geometry of the golden mean, of the divine proportion that creates order in our universe.

There it goes, starting to come in and we're going to stream it again right into our center of gravity above the navel and into our brain waves. We're starting to bring in order and create a coherent field of resonance. There it goes, starts to stream in.

Now I always see it as frequency streaming in. Some who are sensitive may hear the harmonic tones, but we're just bringing the energies in right now to come in and fill inside. Our goal here now is to create a zero point inside our core. To do this, of course, we have to eliminate, remove any polarity. This has built up over time inside us from living in duality and so especially between our masculine and feminine energies or they could be running between the heart and the mind. There could be a fear program running or it could be an operating system from our parents that lived in duality.

We're just going to start to really use our intention now to lift up and repel out any opposing force between light and dark, positive negative and masculine and feminine. We're going to start to lift this out as the frequencies, the harmonics, come in. So it's kind of a swap. We're bringing the harmonics of order and neutrality.

Alright, there we go now. It's starting to move it. Now as we're getting the polarity pushed up to the surface, we go into the breathing. We just breathe this up and out of our hearts, out of our minds, out of our souls. We push it out into the vortex spin. It starts to take it out and send it right back to the galactic core into the neutral field there into the light to be absorbed in and transformed.

Now we're getting a release and so we're streaming in the harmonic tones. This is the tone of ohm. This is the tone of God. It's of perfect order and balance and coherence. Spinning it in and releasing out all discordant energies that do not match our true soul vibration, our true soul frequency, good more coming out. Our goal here is to set up the zero point inside of stillness.

More of that polarity, that opposing force, streaming up out of our mind – it could be programs coming out of our mind. It could be opposing forces of grief or anger, rage, fear coming out of our hearts. It can even be discordant DNA codes in the cells. There we go getting a big wave coming out. Spin it out and we direct it back into the light of source, into the galactic core. It's like a vacuum tube, sucks it right out, takes it out, good.

Now I'm starting to feel us move into more of the calmer, peaceful still point inside. Just keep breathing out the discordant energies. What we doing now is we're starting to mimic what exists in our galactic core and also it exists in the center of our planet is a standing wave, a pulsing singularity. It's just like almost a strobe light.

This flashes in the creative spark of light and it doesn't move anywhere. It's in the standing position. It's right there. We're putting it right in our center of gravity there right above the naval. We're just going to get that pulse. It's like a heartbeat of creation. There we go now. It's starting to take hold inside us. It's still pushing out some more polarity and discordant energies. Good.

Then we want to also get that pulse of singularity under our feet on our grounding platform, so we're no longer grounding into duality. We're no longer grounding into those opposing forces of the North and South Pole. We're grounding into this singularity, which is that standing wave.

It's just you're standing on like a strobe light, have your feet right on it, your magnet's locking onto that pulse of our universe, pulse of creation. Alright, that exists in our zero point. Then we're getting it here. It's under our feet. It's starting to open up the channels of the body.

I'm telling you this is what we need. We have to get out of polarity to open everything up, starting to open up the circuits in the body to the source light from the crystalline grids underneath us and also coming down from the heavens. Starting to open our core pillar up so more of our soul presence can come in.

Now let's get back up into the brain. So we worked down at our feet. We're working in our center at the belly. Now let's go up into the pineal, which is nestled in the fluids there between the right and left brain. Okay, let's get in there – running the tones, zero point tones, there we go.

It starts to remove any kind of filters that could be blocking our third eye, blocking the pineal. The light filter is like coming up and out of a camera lens. Let's just get those out. Again, that's counterforce. Oh good and we're going to keep bringing the crystalline light of source. Now we're going to stream this down and into the pineal and it's like crystal diamonds in light, white light coming down and flowing into our pineal gland.

You can actually imagine that your pineal gland is like a diamond itself and it's just filling with that crystalline light, light of source and there it goes. Starts to activate it more and it's spinning. That's what we want. Everything is spinning counter clockwise right to left. It's like now the diamond, the pineal is starting to turn into like a spinning nebulous bar in our brain. There it goes. It's throwing off the density. It's throwing off those dark layers. It's throwing off the heaviness so that it can start to come alive and lighten and ignite.

We run the zero point harmonic tones again. Now it's activating. We want to get it in that singularity now. Okay, good, that's getting better. This will help our brain waves stay up at these higher frequency ranges of the gamma ray. When you really get into a deep trance state, that's when we start to raise our frequency and the brain waves all the way up to gamma ray.

Gamma ray is unity consciousness so we want to get out of these lower bands of like beta and alpha. That's more of the human 3D duality. We want to get higher here, up into the higher consciousness that we see, we read about in the ascended masters; they rose up into the gamma rays.

Now we're starting to rise up, higher and higher in the brain waves. It's getting lighter and lighter. You've got your feet magnets locking you onto the platform so you don't rise out of your body. You stay in your center core. What we're doing is we're opening up our awareness. We're opening up to higher consciousness and we're opening our neuro network almost like tree branches up, up, up to our higher self, up at the 12th chakra – the top of our pillar.

There you go getting more of that opening up so we can communicate from our lower mind of the human all the way up that neuro pathway to the higher mind of our over soul, our timeless soul, good. Oh, more opening.

I can feel them branching up and it's feeling with the light, so we're creating almost like a two-way highway up. We send up questions. We send up requests for help and then we're in this quiet still point of order, of balance, of zero points. We can receive down the transmissions the guidance. Okay, good. I'm starting to feel the movement up and down, our two-way highway here in our neuro network – beautiful and still activating.

Here's the last thing that we want to do is begin to get our body intelligence synced up with our own soul frequency because we've been living in duality and in separation. We've gotten out of sync and, in a sense, we've kind of gotten tuned more into the external world and so as we're turning back inwards right now every chakra, there's 12 of them in this pillar and are operating like a radio antenna.

This is our sensory body and as we really truly are designed to be human radio antennas. What we want to do is first start to tune into our soul frequency and then get our radio antenna locked onto it, so it's right on our own radio station. This prevents us from having to worry about interference or misinformation or any of this.

Okay, so first thing is we just opened up our pillar. We opened up our neuro path all the way to our higher self and so we're just going to ask right now to stream again more of our soul light coming down through all these open circuits. These are the channels in our bodies and we can just hold the intent for a moment and breathe in. I am a clear and open channel for my soul's true, authentic frequency vibration. We breathe it in. We spin it in. It looks like light streaming through our bodies. It is our own soul's frequency of truth and clarity and wisdom.

Now we're going to sync up the body intelligence to lock onto our own soul frequency. That begins to adjust all the radar dishes at our chakras to start to lock onto the stream of soul light. There they go. They're almost like on little elbows and they're just starting to tune in now away from the chaos out in the world; tune inside and tune to our own frequency range. We're getting set up here like a radio station. Okay, there we go.

Now it's going to start to take hold and the magnets on the feet are locking us up to take hold inside us on our platform. All dialing in and syncing up with our own frequency, our own vibration, let it go. It's taking ahold and when we are grounding something in like this when we do an activation, the vortex starts to spin very fast. What it's doing is it's now starting to pull it into the cell, pull it into the biology, into the physical to take hold.

Spinning in, grounding in to take hold, locking into place so that we are now becoming a human radio antenna to our higher wisdom and communication and knowing and abilities, opening up to our supernatural powers to be coming down in transmissions into us. We are a clear and open channel receiving in all the abundance that we need to support our lives. Coming down like a funnel down from this quantum field of all that is.

Good, now we're getting a good flow coming in and because it's coming down through our higher self our gatekeeper and it's locked into our own frequency, it's only bringing in what matches us – what matches our own soul purpose, what matches our specific needs. Just open your heart like it's coming in and filling inside you, filling into your heart, into your core all that you need to support you in this beautiful life coming in front of us here, in the new earth, in the new energies the new paradigm, the unity consciousness where everyone is in a win-win situation. Oh, I'm feeling that pump up. It's amplifying because we're using crystal and light, so crystals amplify.

Starting to really build stronger and stronger inside us, it's just spinning quite quickly here. So we're just breathing it in, grounding in it, cleaning our divine inheritance to live to our full potential, to live in union with our divine self – good – to live outside the limits of 3D time, to live in this upward resurrection spiral of our universe. We are evolving into becoming divine humans. We set this into motion now and so it is.

Breathe in, spin it in, ground it in – we're still releasing out energies that don't match and replacing it with our divine truth, our soul presence, this beautiful crystalline light, Christ light. It's going all the way into the mitochondria and the cells, changing us from carbon based, filling it to make it crystalline based, creating a light body for our soul to live inside us. Oh man, that's beautiful – still spinning and grounding into take hold. Just believe in this, own this, claim this. This is your divine right to live to your full divine potential and this is the time this year that we can actually achieve this.

Alright, good and that concludes our activation here. We're just going to tap on the arms and legs, kind of come back into more of the body and the now moment. Feel the feet on the floor in the room. We were very expanded in all 12 dimensions, so just kind of pulling that more concentrated into our center, into our belly, kind of pulling in all this beautiful abundance inside us. Making it ours – good – locking it inside us, feeding us, fueling us, transforming us from the inside out.

There we go. Okay, everyone's started to feel more grounded in their bodies, but fuel with this light – awesome. Okay, Darius, we're back.

Darius: I am here. Oh my gosh, I have got like a whole page of things that I could report back. It was astounding and actually I'm going to share kind of what I felt and I'd love to have people right now share what they felt before they kind of hear my story. If you're on the blog www.youwealthrevolution.com/now, maybe let me know what you felt and make note of it, so we can see what happened with you.

Now what happened to me it was really interesting. There were like a lot of different phases or steps of this process. What I first felt like was I went out of my body and when I started spinning everything counter clockwise, it was kind of like everything just got quiet and still. I sort of felt just like this calm and peacefulness. I started to hear a lot of different things coming from my higher self. A lot of wisdom like became unlocked. I don't know if that's the right word, but I just started getting ideas and inspiration and courage and a lot of understanding.

Then when you said something about – I remember – recalibrating the frequency, I started feeling like this old frequency and I'm going to think of like this mathematical formulas that don't serve me. It sort of like left my body and I felt this new frequency come in with this, the proper like code or formulas like being downloaded and absorbed by my cellular structure.

I felt all sorts of things like a recalibration. I felt a lot more wisdom and it's kind of like I'm here, but I feel like I'm still partly there. Like I'm in the matrix, but I'm not totally like consumed by the matrix. I don't know if that makes sense.

Meg: Yes, that's how it is, actually, because we're now evolving into becoming multidimensional, so I always feel very sensitive in my belly, but I'm also there, too, and I'm constantly receiving an insight from the different dimensions, but I'm still in my body and

I'm pulling it in and, yes, you're just going to really live in this expanded state now.

Darius: Now a lot of people were...

Meg: Now it may...we're moving into living in all time. That's what's happening because of the increasing frequency on the planet time is speeding up. We're literally moving towards zero point. That's what's coming in front of us and so the more that we spin in here and we start to live in all time and become comfortable in this, we're ahead of the game because literally our planet is moving toward living in no time all time.

Darius: A lot of people are saying that they felt so connected that they just literally like zoned out. They remember like once they connected and they downloaded, time just sort of collapsed. Is that natural in this state?

Meg: That's very natural and when I first started doing this, I would literally lose like weekends. I would be in that trance state for days and it was...yeah, it was completely changing me, but what I found is my 3D mind, my lower mind, it couldn't expand enough yet into being lucid in these higher dimensions yet. So the more that you spin, the more that you expand, pretty soon you'll be able to stay lucid in all 12 dimensions and that's when you really start to see what's going on in our universe.

It just takes practice and you will, but you know what also? Even though I've been doing this for so long and I stay lucid, I will also take time when I feel like I am low on energy and I'll just open it up, get it going, I'll lie down and I'll breathe and I'll go into that trance state and seed. It's just like my fuel comes in, just like you go into the gas station, you just fuel up and it may take 30 minutes. It may take an hour, whatever I need and all of sudden – pop – I wake up and – bing – I'm already to go again. The trance state is very regenerative as well.

Darius: I feel that...let me just read what's coming in because there are some things that are astounding, almost shocking to me. A lot of people are like literally now in a different reality in terms of their state. They're just feeling completely expanded. A lot of people, their consciousness almost couldn't handle that level of awareness and it actually they lost lucidity.

They said, "Oh, I don't even remember what happened." One person said, "I fell asleep or I got in a trance. Is this normal"? Another person - Anita - "I went into a deep state of sleep. I just dozed off. Did I miss the session"?

Meg: It's still happening don't worry.

Darius: Another person said, "I had this headache and before she started working on my head it just went away. It's gone." It was Becky, "Completely gone." Another person said, "I felt my forehead tighten," and then she just went asleep. Another person said that she was completely in a heavenly body state. This is Linda from Santa Cruz, "And if not for the magnets holding me down, I definitely would have been out of my body. I had this very interesting tickle," okay, so that happens.

"I had this very interesting tickle in my upper abdomen or solar plexus and then just a complete total peace and calm. I am now so anchored into my own frequency." I guess when you talked about your own soul frequency, she says, "I have a grin on my face and I can see things really clearly now."

Meg: Awesome, awesome everybody. That's what it does.

Darius: It's astounding; it's astounding what people are telling me. Another person could see everything and then literally like through a window of her house this huge whoosh of air, she says, came through and all was still. She feels a tingling and pinprick in her arms and feels just this amazing happiness. The comments are just flying in here -very similar, everyone feeling the same thing.

People are releasing, another person said, I yawned." What happens if they're yawning over and over again?

Meg: Yes, that's common, too, because you are releasing out through the breath. Yes, all of that discordant energy. Yup, that's good.

Darius: Wow, wow. One person, Irene said, "I am a different person from the one who started out today. I saw the crystalline energy. I saw the diamonds." She saw faces. She says, "Thank you," it shifted her and I have got to believe that's going to be permanent.

Meg: Releasing all those layers of false ego identity, then the story and we're just getting into our true self, our divine self and it is different. I mean it's totally different than when I first started this process. It's so much different.

Darius: Oh my gosh, I can't believe the power that people are tapping into. Cheryl said, "Not only is my body vibrating, but now my spirit is vibrating." I'm imagining this connection between her third dimensional consciousness and this alter-dimensional self.

Meg: Yes, yes, yes, because when we're working up way in the higher realms of the 12th dimension and higher, what we're connecting to is the over soul, which is the composite of all of our incarnations and timelines and soul aspects. So this is what we're uniting into oneness and bringing into us. We're tapping in and bringing in our mastery from other timelines as well.

That's how I'm doing this work. Meg, the human, has no idea how to do this work. I've been bringing in the mastery of this process and this technique from another timeline. That's when you really start to grow with your capacity and your potential to manifest.

Darius: I am just absolutely astounded. We have Paula who wrote in and said, "I feel like I've finally come home." We had another person said, "I saw lots of things falling off of me and then I've been yawning all along with the expansiveness of my body." Cheryl said, "I've never felt this before. I visualized the golden frequency. I saw a series of symbols on the gold column and I knew it was my name. It was just waiting for me to claim." Very, very cool stuff – it just keeps coming in. Kimberly said, "This Meg is the best ever. Her energy doesn't play around. It pushes the darkness out and puts the light in. Her energy is no nonsense. She shoveled out the darkness and I need her in my life."

She wants to interview you for Yahoo News. We're going to talk with Kimberly and see how we can make all that happen and get this out to more and more people – very, very awesome. Okay, everybody's kind of just in a huge state here. Tell me, is there more beyond this? Did you kind of reach the pinnacle or is this just the first possible?

Meg: Oh no, no, this is just the start because once you start to integrate inside with this unified field of all your timelines, we get into any path like conno that needs to be cleared and resolved. We get into any soul contracts with people in our lives that we need to resolve and close. There's so much here that needs to be delved into and be able to bring into balance.

That's really what we're doing here we're bringing everything into this still point into this balance point. We're integrating our masculine and feminine energies so that we actually become complete and whole inside. That completely alters how we are in relationships. It eliminates any kind of codependency. We're very empowered and authentic in our relationships.

There's so much here and so because we're getting to the molecular level, we're also pulling out any kind of disease matrices because what I have found is, truly, disease is connected to where we have been. The root cause, in a sense, is where we've been disconnected from this spiritual energy from our light, from our source and also, too, there's so much hidden emotional pain from this life, early childhood and past life and so that's what we're going back in time because the vortex works like a time machine. So it takes us anywhere we basically focus our attention on. Any kind of coordinates in time, we can focus our attention on and the vortex will take us there.

That's when we can drop into this energy that's stored of past emotional pain or wounding. All of that needs to come out so that we're disease free, we're living in a time with genetic code where there's no more aging, no more decay. We're able to transform ourselves in the antimatter field with our consciousness.

This is where we're really starting to become an alchemist because when we clean things up, we start to get into that real union of the soul and the human and we're no longer being controlled by the ego, the ego mind, and we're really now living the life guided by the divine will, the higher mind. This is then when we can start to create our lives as an alchemist.

There's so much more, so this is just a start and there's healing work to be done. There's cleaning work that needs to be done and it's just because we've been living in this environment of duality for 26,000 years. There's been a lot built up inside us. I realize I'll never get through this if I don't have something to help me and this is so fast. It's the only tool found that will really accelerate this so fast that you can move out lifetimes where when I first started 17 years ago, it would take me months, sometimes years to just pull out one program from my family.

Now we can move out lifetimes. It's moving so fast. That's why this year is so powerful that we just make this quantum leap in our evolution. Yes, that was a start and everyone now has the imbedded template under their feet in their platform and they can start to work with it on their own and keeping going, keep moving forward, keep advancing.

Darius: We're getting a lot of people writing in and I guess one question that I want to ask is when we talk about like illness and disease or limiting beliefs and programs, can you in plain language just if there are people that aren't following along or maybe it's like I've never heard this, I just need my mind. Why would this shift your life away from those limitations or those physical challenges that are creating a lack of vitality? What is happening here for the lay person to understand?

Meg: If we just continue in status quo and we don't do anything we don't make any changes we'll remain in this downward spiral of time and decay and all of these emotional imbalances that have built up over the many lifetimes and we'll live still in that ego control. We're still going to live in that counterforce, right? That's sabotaging all of our positive effort. What this does, the benefits of using this quantum vortex is what it does is it skyrockets your kundalini activation as we just started. It gets you into that expansion of your full potential.

Then what it's doing is it's accelerating your progress so fast because we're in that upward spiral dynamic because we reached the zero point in our core. What it does is it really helps you cross the threshold from 3D time into this new earth that is fifth dimensional.

I literally see it like a membrane almost like moving through jello, that we're just going to move through that membrane of time and into the higher realm, the fifth dimensional realm that's in unity consciousness. The only way we can get across into the higher realm is that we have to get rid of our polarity. That's why this is so important to use this technique to just really go in and neutralize and clear out all of your polarity.

Then when you get more of this union occurring with the over soul and the human self, then all of your life decisions are now guided by the heart right. You can't make any mistakes at that point. You're just following your inner wisdom. I find by doing this work then our hearts are healed and are filled with this divine love of source, of mother father and what's happening is we're actually starting to create a field of love inside us and around our bodies and that is what's magnetizing and all that we need to support us from the quantum field. Then we're also able to stream that field of love into the collective around the planet and help everyone lift up. Not only are we healing ourselves, we're also helping others.

It's like microcosm/macrocosm. What we do on ourselves, we can then share out into the world and help others. That's the process I see happening here in the next six months.

Darius: I agree and, again, what's incredible is people are writing in again and again. I want to do a few things. I want to take people's questions, so if you have a question for Meg, you have a question about the process, a question about maybe your life, your transformation, where you want to go, send that in. I'm going to compile those.

Meg, a quick question – we didn't talk about a lot more that we could have talked about here. There is still much more. One thing you mentioned and I've done some work in this – not as deep as you by any stretch – but the pineal gland and the network of our psychic and intuitive communications. Tell me about that and why it's important for us to do your work at this higher level to activate that pineal.

I've never had anybody talk about the pineal activations here and yet it's something that is so powerful that is our birthright and we've been closed off from it. No one's activating it for us until you – tell me.

Meg: It's so interesting because if you actually look at an image like a slice of the brain and into the pineal, it's literally imbedded in the image of the eye of Horace, the eye of the God of Rah. It's the same. The Egyptians knew what they were talking about when they were using that symbol of the eye of Rah. Its set in fluid in between the left and right brain and it literally works like the portal between our three dimensional self and then up into the higher realms the higher dimensions because it's in three dimensions. Because it's been in this lower compression of polarity, it's not been able to activate. This is why all the ancient teachers are always saying you should meditate.

Darius: Okay, so I may interrupt you a little bit here because I want to be sure. For people that are not familiar with this, we are not currently, most of us, activating our pineal gland.

Meg: No, no, we are not.

Darius: There's this gland and isn't it in the center point of our brain it's like in the absolute center almost.

Meg: Yes.

Darius: It's in the absolute center of our brain, most of us have never heard of about it and we're not activating it. Why?

Meg: My personal opinion is because there is a controlling force on the planet to not want us to. That's the counterforce.

Darius: Okay, so I kind of believe that, too. Couple of unsolved questions and I just kind of want to do this short first dialog. How is it being shut off or not activated? What are the things that are happening that are causing that and then what happens if we do activate it?

Meg: Okay, there's lots of ways that it's staying shut down. Definitely, even just in the frequency waves around the planet putting off through radio frequency, through the television, all of the electronics are in certain frequency levels, bands that are lower to try to keep the brain in the lower brain waves. It's trying to keep us in. If you can keep the brain waves on the planet in like a beta state or a delta state, that's really kind of a hypnotic state.

Then we can really be manipulated. We can be in more of an amnesia, we can be robotic. This is how a lot of this is being used to keep us from opening up to our full brain capacity and our own awareness, our own sovereignty, our own independent thought and to come awake.

When we go into the vortex spin, we're basically repelling, as you saw. We're repelling all of that interference in the frequency waves, right. We're pushing them away and we're getting into that zero point, right, then we can then select what kind of frequency we want to run in our own brain waves.

Of course, I go straight up. I go right up to the divine. That's what I've streamed into my brain waves and that's how I've been able to elevate them up into more of the gamma frequency range then that's where you start to open up your pineal and then that worksheet's open.

Darius: Are things like fluoride and things shutting down and calcifying the pineal so there's like a...you wonder why they tell us their putting fluoride in our water for our teeth, but it's actually to shut down and calcify our pineal gland. Is that what you're...?

Meg: I love the additives in our food. Yes, in the water, even in the air, all of that is in a sense lowering our vibration so we can't get the brain waves up into the higher range for the pineal to activate. All of it is dimming us down.

Darius: Doesn't the pineal as well...I've read somewhere like where people will do like meditations when the first sun comes up and there's like sort of activation from that as well with the pineal.

Meg: They say that if you can do direct sunlight viewing then that actually helps activate the pineal so the safest time is, right, as you said, at sunrise where it's not going to harm your eyes so you can actually get that. We're bringing in then pure gamma rays from the sun into the pineal through the eyes.

So, yes, that's a great way to do it as well. Also, any kind of brain wave entrainment atoning at gamma level will help as well. It's just starting to take control back of your mind and say, "Now wait a minute. Getting off all of the medications and the additives and really start to live clean and work with your brain waves, work with your toning." This all opens up all that.

Darius: Quick question, okay, so one person's asking, "Why would we want to activate this pineal gland? What does it have to do with our abilities or psychic abilities? Why is it important?"

Meg: Our lower mind of the human self only operates in the three dimensions. It only believes what it can see, feel and touch. More of our higher wisdom needs to come down from the higher dimensional self. When the pineal's not activated, then basically, we have like a ceiling right there at our lower mind and we can't access anything remaining.

If we're in a 12 dimensional universe and we're only living three dimensions, we're missing nine dimensions of experience, knowledge, wisdom, all of it. When we can get the pineal open that shoots upwards into the other nine dimensions a neuro network that starts to bring incoming information.

Consciousness that travels through photon light, so the more that we actually meditate and bring in the light, the crystalline light, the photon light, it's traveling into us and bringing in that higher awareness, that higher consciousness. It's actually how it travels in through the brain and then moves in through the receptors sights and we start to integrate it.

The more that we can open up to the higher 12 dimensions, open our mind, our brain up to receiving transmissions from these higher dimensions, the more that we then see what's truly happening in our universe and get beyond this illusion of the three dimensions because it's really not what we think it is.

We actually start to see what's really coming down. We actually see what's happening and coming in our future. You start to live out of time. You can actually see what's coming in your future towards you and you can then alter it. You start to become co-creator of your life in all moments because you're in tune to future time. You're also in tune to the past where you can actually go back and redo past. I work with clients all the time where we go back and we re-write the past.

Darius: Re-write the past.

Meg: Yeah, you can go back and re-write the past. When you unlock time, everything's open.

Darius: You are such an encyclopedia. I just have a million questions and one person is asking, "Who or what is trying to dumb us down"? Maybe it's the first time they've heard that, but any thoughts on that?

Meg: Of course, I didn't know any of this either until I started using the vortex and opening up my ability to see beyond the illusion. I've been shown in the past 15 years from working with clients as well is this planet is so coveted that there are all kinds of visitor races from other planetary systems that are occupying our planet, basically.

They have gotten into our governments and into our banking system and they have taken over the resources of our planet and they are the 1% elite that's controlling everything on the planet right now. They do not want the humans to wake up. They want to continue to control it. They are basically like parasitic races that are taking everything they can – all the resources of the planet – and then they move on. That's how they survive.

We need to wake up to this and I see it happening actually like occupy Wall Street and the Arab Spring. We're seeing where people are waking up to this and going, oh hell no, and we're starting to take out planet back.

That's what's happening with this amazing year of this awakening this new consciousness awakening in everyone. It scared me at first when I saw what was happening, but then I immediately as you connect to your higher power you realize, wait a minute, we're very powerful beings here. There's nothing to be afraid of. Let's just take our planet back, so that's what we're doing.

Darius: Meg, this is a great question. With these people in control of the leadership, the banking and government and some of these elites, can we take it back? As you go into high dimension, do you see us taking it back or do you see sort of this grid of control? For a lot of people here – I'm just going to make this point – if we get into politics and say, oh no, I like this person, they're all kind of really controlled by the same things.

There's nobody really that independent, so we have to really separate from...if you're in the US, oh no, I like this person versus that person. They're all two heads of the same snake. If you can get that, you can really understand what we're talking about. Don't get into the duality that one is this – no, they're all the same. Meg, can we, with this? Then how do we win this?

Meg: We definitely are winning from what I can see when I go into all time. I have seen where there have been so many beloved beings who have come to this planet to drop into these dark systems and bring the light into the systems to break them down and collapse them and it has already. It's already collapsing. In a way that dark regime of power and control is already falling apart. It's already dying. It's already coming apart at the seams. It's collapsing for sure.

What I'm seeing then is as more and more souls awaken and start to live on this beautiful Christ light, they start to open their field of love in their hearts. Then what's happening, it's such a high frequency that we are literally spinning this whole planet faster and faster and higher and higher and we're just going to spin off and that dark dying collapsing one is going to spin off.

They've done a lot of studies and even NASA's come out where they've been able to document that even our moon and they say that the moon is a spin off from earth from the torque spin. It's happened before. Every time the earth lines up with the galactic core, we get this surge. We get this spin up and the moon is actually a spin off from earth.

What I'm sensing is this collapsing, dying regime is going to be another spin off and maybe another moon. Who knows how it will show up, but that's what they're predicting. That's what I see when I actually go in front, in the future, it's already happening.

Darius: I love it. Now I want to say this. I think this explains, Meg, why some people are having such a hard time manifesting abundance because they are trapped. I said this in the beginning of the You Wealth Revolution main pages that there are two models. The elites want us to stay in this model of work the 40-hour a week job, work for somebody be sort of doing what you've always done. Do what you think is going to give you security versus what really you're here to do and your passion. People who are holding to that old model because that's the way it's always been done is exactly what the elitist of the world and these controlling structures want you to do.

You lose more and more of your opportunities. You lose your wealth. You become scared. You become frustrated. You become worried. You become part of the power grid and you're easily manipulated. If I hear another person write me in and say, "Oh well, I've lost my job and I'm on this and that," I'm like, "Look, this has been the message of this event, guys, if you haven't heard me, it is now the time to wake up and you are not going to get anywhere following that model any longer. It is gone. It is now time that what we do here becomes the norm."

For someone who is having abundance issues, Meg, let's get to the heart of it. How can this benefit them? If it's just detaching from the old model, what can you do for somebody who right now cannot pay the bills?

Meg: Exactly what you just said in that we are moving from one model to another, so we're leaving behind this old model of polarity where we're in that kind of counterforce opposition. Any time you needed to manifest, you had to kind of push effort into getting it out into the world.

We're leaving that behind. We're moving into now this singularity, which is a standing wave pulse of light that just ignites inside us. We're also getting into this Taurus vortex spin, so it's kind of like a doughnut spinning around us and it brings in from the quantum field exactly what matches our soul frequency.

No more effort – this is where we work internally. Everything that we visualize and are feeling, our hearts desire to support ourselves, we hold that inside us here in our hearts and in our bellies and our solar plexus and our minds and then the singular pulse just starts to create a magnetic field that goes out into the doughnut spin. It spins out into the quantum field starts to pull it back in and this is how we manifest. It's not through effort. It's through actually energy. It's through magnetism, but it's not magnetism with law of attraction with the polarity.

This is where we're really just getting into where the quantum field is basically just pulsing around your body. You're in it. You become open to the anti-particle that matches every particle. You start to get in to the whole field. You pulse in what it is that you need and your mind and your visioning and your meditation, I pull everything inside. I pull all my business energy inside me, everything that is near and dear to me I pull inside me. I feel it with this crystalline light in my heart and it gets into my spin and it starts to just pulling in more and pulling in more. I don't have to go out and fight the world. I don't have to battle. I don't have to effort.

Darius: Oh my God, wow, I don't have to fight. I don't have to battle. I love this.

Meg: All through energy.

Darius: So many questions, Meg, I could just go on forever. For people in the health area or the wellness or the vitality area, is it a similar answer as to why this tunes them into their natural frequency as why this is also a way to be more vital in the health perspective?

Meg: Yeah, because that Taurus vortex, this doughnut shaped vortex, this is what Nikola Tesla discovered 100 years ago. This is a source of free energy in our universe. When you get that operating in your own field naturally 24/7, you are tapping into the source of endless energy all the time because it's coming in through photon light. You can then use your mind. Our mind is holographic, so you just start to imprint the visions, the images, into the incoming light and that gets into the quantum field.

Anyone who is working as a healer, who is wanting to work on more planetary situations, you can use this in any area that you're doing. It's a universal tool, basically. It just comes in around our own energy field and it supports us. I feel, really, this is our future. This is what we're moving to. This is the new paradigm that we're moving into.

Darius: Incredible. For the person that is here and says, "I'm not really sure what I'm here to do. I don't know what my purpose is. I don't know what I'm good at," how can this serve them?

Meg: Perfect question, thank you. I had the same problem. I was like what am I even supposed to do with this technique. It was just overwhelming. What I found is if you can spend some time regularly just meditating and pulling more and more of your soul presence inside you, into your body, into your heart, what this does is it gets you in touch with yourself. This is literally the only way that I actually could learn who I am.

It's very experiential. It's the path of self-realization. This is where we really start to learn who we are because when we get our soul presence in, it's not there just to hang out, right. It wants to create. It's constantly giving me new ideas, just new passions inside me of let's go do this, let's go do this. When the soul comes in, it's going to want to go out and create in the world.

That's how you start to learn what is your true essence, what makes you unique and then also, too, what I found is when we're able to run our soul frequency through the channels of our body, what this does is it opens us up to our own akashic records. It operates...in a sense, I found our soul frequency operates like a library card. You swipe the frequency of your soul and it gets you into your own akashic records.

This is the living library that's in our unified field of all time so this tells us where we're from. This tells us what our purpose is, what our blueprint is. That soul frequency is key. The more that you can meditate and keep bringing that soul frequency in and getting very tuned into it and feeling, it has its own energy. It has its own energy field. That is what is going to unlock your unified field to all that you are. You're whole akashic records.

Darius: Amazing, I am incredibly excited about this. Some of the people that you've worked with then they tapped into this, what are some of the favorite stories or things that you've seen happen because I think for a lot of people here, I'm getting a lot of questions and I want to first apologize.

A lot of people are sending in questions, like literally they're coming in dozens at a time. I'm not avoiding questions. I'm getting so many I'm trying to pick general big themes because this is such a cutting edge thing for a lot of people. The other thing I'm going to say is I am aware of all of the things we've talked about especially with the control structures.

I've been aware of it. I haven't brought it up here as strongly as I have today because I think a lot of the guests probably aren't really at that vibration level whereas with Meg, we can just sort of let it all hang out.

A lot of people are still like kind of in shock and they're like, okay, how can this help my life. I didn't even know this stuff and should I do this or should I use the law of attraction and we're getting a lot of that like, I'm torn now you're telling me the law of attraction isn't what I need to be doing. What are some of the people that you've worked with, some of your favorite stories of transformation through this amazing work – I'm just going to call it truth?

Meg: Just first, too, we can use the law of attraction, but we're now going to use it with singularity. That's the only difference that I wanted to make. I just wanted to make that note. We're not dumping it. It's just we're using our own magnetism to draw in what we need in the quantum field, but we're now using it through singularity not polarity.

I think I've been using the vortex almost 20 years. I think that's probably why Abraham Hicks is now introducing the vortex to the world because this is the tool that we're going to use. This is our future paradigm. This is how we're going to do it.

What I've found in working with people for 17 years, in a sense, it's been my university, right? I get to learn as I get in with people and hear their stories and see what this is doing for them. It's been extraordinary, but so many ways, so many areas that has been unlocking them from where they were really caught into an abusive program, like for myself, I even was born into a family with ritual abuse. You get caught into addictions. You get caught into low self-esteem, sabotaging, negative thinking. All of this stuff gets blown out, gets freed out, gets removed when you're in that zero point in the vortex.

What you're doing is you're really starting to break free of all of these kinds of oppressive systems and programs that aren't letting you live in joy. We should be living in joy all the time. I wasn't. I was deeply depressed. I had OCD. I had panic attacks. I had all of this stuff, really. I finally realized something's very wrong with me and, lo and behold, our greatest wound leads us to our greatest gift. It dropped this in my lap. It was like my lifesaver to get out of that dark world, that dark life.

It's literally a life transformation tool. Anywhere you apply it you'll be able to shift the energy, anywhere that you feel blocked or locked down or you feel out of balance or you feel like some behavior is running me, that I really feel is destructive to me, these kinds of things. That's what I focus on in sessions with people.

We've seen people transform their marriages. We've seen people break free of addictions and abusive partnerships. We see people healing disease because they got into...like women come to me and they've had breast cancer. They get into the root of that and it's usually very deep grief. I've got to get into where the feminine has been destroyed, right, we've got to go in there. The body can start to regenerate once we get that out, once we heal that.

Anything and everything you can apply to and I find in working with clients in private sessions, too, is when we can get into this really expanded state it, boy, did it really shift my perspective. I began to see more through the eyes of my high self now, my over soul and you pull away from ego, right, that ego is really not our friend. That ego is negative thoughts and controlling behavior and so we start to kind of pull the ego out of the body. I actually start to push the ego into the aura and I quarantine it and it's like you stay over there. I need to start to transform you into light.

That's how I've been doing it and it really does work, actually. You're clearing your bio-circuitry of the ego. It's power and control, so the soul can come more in. Then you really start to live from your higher witness, right, that observer consciousness and the ego just dissolves, so it's not a problem anymore.

Darius: I've got so many questions for you and we're going to need to have you back. There's no question about that. I want to talk about a special video you have for everybody here that I think is pretty awesome. I've been watching it and watched it this morning – blew my mind. Also, what you have for people to go deeper into this.

Nobody has ever come close to sharing this much information with us on this event. Tracie from Hollywood, California said, "This is beyond anyone you've ever brought on, ever, Darius." Paula from Los Altos said, "I can't believe all the answers. This is a Godsend." Another person said, "Thank you for bringing the unspoken truth out."

People are just absolutely astounded, flabbergasted and excited. They want to go deeper into this. They want not only to get answers, but they want to be able to experience their own answers. What Meg has done that is I think just beautiful is, first of all, she has an incredible video and I'm going to give you the page where that is. It's at www.youwealthrevolution.com/meg, www.youwealthrevolution.com/meg. This is talking about vortex energy and increasing our vibration, Meg?

Meg: Yes, yes, it's increasing the vibration. This is key so we can get into that upward spiral into the counter clockwise spiral and then that's creating the environment where you can bring your soul frequency in and start the transformation. The video is just informative and walking you through some of the steps of why this is so valuable. Yes, that's on the page that Darius just gave to you.

Darius: That's at www.youwealthrevolution.com/meg, but then there's also a very special package with even coaching telecourse by you where you can get live training and personalized training from Meg in this and she is the only one I know with this level that you can get this from. What we have here is astounding.

Meg, maybe let's talk about what you put together because it is very unique and having that personal component is mind-blowing. Let's go through it. What is on that page that you've put together for us?

Meg: What I've done is I've compiled what I feel is the necessary steps to get started, so I called it just a starter course. It's drawing from the last 17 years of all that I've gone through myself and then working with clients. I've broken it into four different categories that are sequential. First, it's exploring the human energy field. I have an eBook and a download meditation recording. That's to start activating the vortex energy on your own.

Embedded in that recording, of course, is the sacred geometry template so that it will bend space so that you can get it moving up around you on your own. I've embedded a lot of codes into the recording so that it will help you get started.

Then the second stage is they're now moving into what I call the healing the original wound of separation. I found this when I started doing the healing work. It was like, oh my God, everyone seems to have this like big hole inside them. When I go into time, it really goes back into early childhood the first formative years here when we really start to lose our connection to Spirit.

It literally, I guess, it pulls the energetic umbilical cord right out of us, right. We all have this like gaping wound, an energetic wound inside our core and we've been trying to fill this with all these different substances and all this other stuff that really isn't going to work.

The key to becoming whole, we have to heal this original wound of separation, there's an ebook on that with some exercises as well. I have two meditations that will help you work. One is Healing the Original Wound and the one is Nurturing the Inner Spirit. That's to really work with kind of that inner child energy that is holding that wound and what I've found is that when we heal the inner child, that's when the joy starts to come alive in our bodies again. That's really coming from our inner child.

Then the third, the third step, is working with the shadow self. We kind of talked about this a little bit, the ego, but we cannot ascend and hold our soul frequency and really merge with the divine self when the ego's running. There is an eBook on the shadow self and just describing what all that is and some exercises on that.

Then two vortex meditation downloads – one is How to Collapse Ego Attachments and then How to Heal the Fragmented Self because that's what the ego does. It actually starts to fragment us. Those are, again, starting to piece ourselves back together from being in this duality for thousands of years. This is what we're doing.

Then finally the final stage is How to Become a Divine Human, an eBook on that especially about – I call it – the container of light. Remember when we started our activation, we set up, we were trying to get this vortex around us like a container of light, like an orb of protection? It goes into how to do that and an exercise on that and then two meditation downloads as well.

One is about the unified field energy exchange. This, of course, is so important. We learn how to master the how we exchange energy with the world and with people and with all. This is where we get in trouble. We have to learn how to contain our energy, right, so that we're not getting violated and we're not getting invaded and we're not getting drained. We start to learn how to hold our power, our light inside.

Then the second meditation is how to rebirth our true self and this, of course, is what we were talking about in this class is how to get the divine self-alive inside us, the kundalini awakened, really opening to our akashic records, how to rebirth our true self. Those are the downloads that you get to work them.

Next month on July 14th, it's a Saturday, I'm going to be hosting a private coaching teleseminar for all who purchased the starter course. I've done these in the past where people call in and they have problems – I can't seem to get this going or I have a question on this – and it's just live coaching. We get right in there and I will work energetically with everyone who's on the call.

Darius: Oh my gosh, oh my gosh, this is so cool and it gives them time to really get through the work. Let me tell people where it is and I'm going to ask you some questions about each piece. First of all, you brought this down. It's $750, what it sells for. Its $97 for us here, which I think is astounding.

The other thing is that you know what we do here and that is try it, transform or we give you your money back. It's 30 days. Try this, get into it, feel it, let it shift your life, get what it is done in a much deeper way than even what we could share with you here and transform. If not, if you're not happy, then we absolutely want you happy and so we will refund your investment. Meg, truth is, this is so powerful and what people experience here I don't think we'll get many people doing that at all.

Meg: Yeah, I don't think so. It's a tool they can use on their own, in their own privacy of their own home. They can work on themselves whenever they have the time. They can start to work on their loved ones. You can even use the vortex to clear the energy in your home. This is an all-purpose tool. Everyone seems to really enjoy working with it.

Darius: Where would somebody start for the people that have already tapped into this, people that are going forward in the program? Where do they start? Do they start with the eBook on the human energy field and start working with that and start downloading some of those embedded codes. I want to ask about that, too, but where would they start?

Meg: Definitely, they would start with the eBook on the human energy field. I also included...it's not a meditation it's just me talking. I think it's almost an hour. It's an introduction of how the whole program works. It'll help you get an overview of what you're working on. I would start with that. Then the first meditation is for beginners and it's called Activate Vortex Energy and I would start with that. I think it's about 20 minutes. It's a good time. You can start it in the morning, get yourself grounded, get the energy up around you that when then you're off and running for the day, those are what I would start with in the beginning, of the course.

Darius: Now you said something and I took notes from this and I haven't really heard this before, but when you say you embedded codes in these recordings, what kind of codes? I mean when you say codes, what are the codes that were embedded and why is that something that is important or we that we should be interested in?

Meg: What I've learned using this system over the years is that my over soul has the ability to change space with my mind, with my holographic mind. I realized that doesn't come easy to people in the beginning so what I did is I used the holograms of sacred geometry and embedded them in the recordings and in the vibration of audio so that it helps people work with the sacred geometry to open up and spin energy.

That metatron's cube is incredible because what it's doing is it is actually vortex mathematics and it starts to create the spin. I embedded that into the recording so that people have that active for them until they can actually do that on their own. That's the goal, of course, is so everybody gets really proficient at this.

There's also sacred geometry used to open the crown. See, this crown of ours at the seventh chakra, this crown is our portal up to the spiritual dimensions. People have a lot of trouble getting that open as well. I've actually worked with a sound engineer. He put the meditations on his system and he's like, okay, first of all, when I'm tuning into you you're not even showing up on 3D, you're way up on 5D or higher. I was like, cool, it's working. Then he's like I don't know how you're doing it, but you're frequency in these meditations are at the crown chakra so you're opening the portal there for people. My over soul knows how to do it and so that's what's coded into the recordings.

Darius: Coded in so they get that. Now when they listen to this, you said the different levels, is there some part of us that downloads that coding or that recognizes that coding. It's almost like software that we can run, but we haven't run it because, well, it's just been kept from us.

Come on, if this is valuable which it is, we should have learned this in school, but yet they're hiding. They're hiding, hiding this software from us because they don't want us to escape this prison reality and create our real reality. When we do that, it's like something in us activates, is that correct?

Meg: Yes, it's like it's dormant in your mind, in your brain and when the frequency hits it, it just starts to open up starts to wake up. We're all designed to operate. I call it the original blueprint. We're all designed to operate at our full potential. We already have it in the DNA. We already have it in the pineal. It's all waiting, but we've not been able to activate it because we've been at these very low frequencies, right.

Now when you work with these meditations, you're going to start to and as people felt today, you're going to start to feel these divine frequencies now streaming in and they go right into these dormant areas in the brain, in the pineal, in the DNA and they start to activate it up. It's all in you, it's just getting it running. That's the goal here.

Darius: Amazing, I love it. It's at www.youwealthrevolution.com/meg. All of this is included and wow. When I read stuff here – that nurturing the inner spirit, releasing the shadow self, collapsing the attachments to ego, healing the fragmented self – what I'm sensing is that there is a self. There is a truth that is in all of us. We with this can begin to really connect energetically and codedly into that truth without having to struggle, without having to work at it, without having to deal all of the processes and things that everyone's kind of put in front of us that we think we have to do.

So we can somehow get the secret, but it's a frequency. It's a code. It's intelligent vibrational energy that's trying to reach us yet we've been in this box and when you're in a box, you've got to get outside of the box to see what's on the other side of the box. Me giving you a bunch of information when you're in the box is just going to be you and the box reading information. You've got to open the top of the box and see what the real truth is and that's my feeling on this.

Meg: Yeah, this technology, if you want to call it that isn't new. This has been existing in all time in our universe where...they've been doing studies back in ancient Egypt in the pre-dialogistic times. You can even see embedded on the walls the flower of life. They used sacred geometry back then, so we're not inventing the wheel here. We're just waking up it again.

It's all been time tested over and over again and what's fascinated me is one of the ways that I was introduced into starting the sacred geometry in my own template was my team, my guides. They would say, "Okay, imagine that you're stepping into the pyramid of Giza and you're stepping onto the sacred geometry there. It's a crystalline grid underneath the floor under the pyramid of Giza. It is crystalline technology that we're doing when we use the vortex and it's going to start to spin up and it's called the phi spiral and it's going to start to move up through your body and it's going to get all the way up to that pineal and it's going to pop it open as the eye of Horace. It's going to open up your human radio antenna," and I was like, oh my God, this is what's happening.

So this is what we're doing. We're using, in a sense, what was designed in our ancient pyramids as communication tools to the universe. We're using it around our bodies to do the exact same thing and it does work and it's amazing.

Darius: I've got a question and I know we've gone long, but who is this not for? Who is this not for? I know that's kind of a unique question, but who would this not be suitable for? Is there anybody? I mean is there somebody that just would not want this?

Meg: Not that I'm aware of. I mean the only thing I can think of would be a soul that doesn't want to evolve or doesn't have a heart center developed. Maybe that's...wants to maintain control over others so that it wants to stay in ego. We have to surrender the ego controls to do this. So if it wants to stay in ego, then this might not be it for it, but otherwise, it's for all souls who want to evolve and ascend and come back into union in oneness.

Darius: Amazing, amazing. One quick question – oh God, I have so many. I just I know we've gone long. I think we're just going to have to have you back because I've got tons of questions. Can this help people see into the future? I mean you talked about sort of like seeing the future of the way things would go? This can help you see into the future and kind of understand the energetic movement that is propelling us forward and...?

Meg: How it appears to me when I open up to all the dimensions is our universe is like this. It's almost like a kaleidoscope of flashing timelines. It's just an infinite number of potential future timelines. What we do is we can read in front of our body that's going right on our path into the future time. We can start to read what's starting to show up in front of us. That means it's already in motion, right, we've already started to get that going.

If it's not working well or it doesn't feel right – I do this all the time – I can immediately start to sense that something's in front of me on my future path that doesn't feel in balance. I'll immediately go in and shift it and get it back into this beautiful harmonics. You're constantly vigilant on what you're creating 24/7. You've got to be present. You've got to be in your body. You've got to be awake. We can't check out...you've got to be really paying attention and then you keep yourself out of trouble. You are constantly adjusting the future timeline in front of you.

I have to tell you multiple times because I've been doing this almost 20 years. I've had to shift timelines more than once. It's kind of like if you're at a train station and you jump the track, I've had to do that as I keep ascending up in frequency and more and more dimensional higher consciousness. I will upgrade and jump tracks. They're continuing to update with me, in a sense, and that's where we really get off the treadmill here of duality. You start to jump tracks and get out of that future timeline.

Darius: I am very, very, very excited. I want to make sure that the page is working. One person said there was an error. It might be because a lot of people are running to the page. Now it is working – www.youwealthrevolution.com/meg. Cindy, if you're having any trouble that is the page.

Oh boy, everybody is very, very excited.

www.youwealthrevolution.com/meg and there's a video there that is for the training and then also this special package that includes the personalized teleseminar that Meg is going to be doing in early July or mid-July and you can find all of that there, plus the package at something like 80% or 90% off – all of this so you can do this on your own and you can connect.

Meg, thank you very much. I have so many questions about where we're going and all of this, but I think it's probably best that we save those for another day and let people get started. Any final words to the group or anything that's coming to you as you feel the energy of the people here at the You Wealth Revolution or anything that you're over soul is kind of sending to you regarding the people here and what we're doing and their willingness to sort of move into this next level?

Meg: Yes, I have to tell you, since I've been doing this so long, in the earlier years I don't even know what kept me going because most people thought I was just crazy. There wasn't an audience. People weren't interested. They weren't getting it. I have to tell you just meeting you and your listeners is so exciting for me because I'm finally seeing that in these different visions to me for almost 20 years that this is happening this year.

To be in the midst of it and to meet all these beautiful souls who your hearts are open and you're evolving and you're wanting to take the planet back and you're wanting to create a new world, I am thrilled to meet you and be a part of our whole family here. It's been a lonely track, so it's great to be here with all of you. Thank you.

Darius: I think this is incredible because it means we're ready. We're open and I just want to thank everybody. Meg, thank you for being here. My brain is just so wide open. We're going to have you back. We're going to ask even tougher questions and see where we're moving to and what we can do and this is the future of all of us. Thank you so much for being here. I absolutely loved our time together.

Meg: Thank you, Darius. I loved it, too. I'd love to come back again.
